

Please do not make it more difficult for alternative broadcast media to exist, including internet radio. It's important to free speech and the foundation of our country in diversity to let every voice be heard.